

James Pinion, left, county agent in Lawrence County, and Thurman White, who in 1991 approached Pinion about building a park and memorial to Jesse Owens in Oakville, stand on the porch of a shack similar to the one where Owens was born.

Bob Farley/Post-Herald