

JESSE OWENS MEMORIAL PARK & MUSEUM

Visitor's Center

Moving
Remodeling
Landscaping

House located at its new permanent home ready to become the Visitor's Center. Barrett Shelton with the Decatur Daily, gave $27,000 to restore the home.

House ready to move. Hired Kenneth Lambert to remodel the home.

Future Visitor's Center. Donated by Carl Warren Family

Thurman White working on old house to be moved to the Jesse Owens Memorial Park.

Cedar siding being painted on new Welcome Center.

More work to be done.

Working on Visitor's Center and culvert into entrance.
Barrett Shelton, Decatur Daily gave $27,000 to restore the house.

Adding a porch around house.

Stone chimney and fireplace completed.

Porch rails installed.

Landscaping begins.

Bermuda sod being laid around the Welcome Center.

Laying sod at Visitor's Center.
Left to Right: James Pinion, Don Rojem & Kenneth Lambert

Therman White (sitting on sod palet)

Visitor's Center ready to welcome guests to Jesse Owens Memorial Park.

Sylvester Owens (Jesse's brother) enjoying the Park.